

Volunteer Opportunity

Program Assistant

Vancouver Police Museum

If you enjoy working with children in an educational setting, the position of program assistant is an excellent volunteer choice. Working under the supervision of the Museum Programmer, the successful candidates will be responsible for:

- Delivering educational programs to elementary, secondary and ESL students
- Conducting guided tours of the museum
- Assisting with the research and development of new educational programs

The Vancouver Police Museum is operated by the Vancouver Police Historical Society, a non-profit society and registered charity. The mandate of the museum is to foster interest in the history of the Vancouver Police Department and to deliver educational programs that focus on crime prevention and the science of contemporary police work.

Qualifications

- Interest in and/or knowledge of local history, policing, education, forensic science or criminology
- Excellent communications and interpersonal skills; public speaking or tour guiding experience is an asset
- Public speaking experience is an asset
- Fluency in English is required

Volunteers will be asked to commit a minimum of 4 hours a week and must be available to volunteer during the museum's open hours: Monday-Saturday 9:00AM-5:00PM.
